

Using Splunk – Become an Expert Splunker

Half Day Training Course. Price: £495.00 + VAT per delegate

Recommended for: System Administrators, Help Desk Support and Developers

Available: Onsite at Satisnet offices.

This instructor led, lab intensive course will prepare you to get the most out of searching, navigating, alerting and reporting.

Course Topics:

- What is Splunk? How will you use it?
- How to access and navigate Splunk's web interface
- Splunk's search language
- Using point and click shortcuts in the web interface
- Creating event types and tags
- Saving and sharing searches
- Creating reports and alerts
- How to get help

Module One – Overview:

- How can Splunk help you?
- How is Splunk put together?
- What type of data can Splunk digest?
- What help available?

Module Two – Searching

- Identify the sections of the Splunk user interface
- Use the Splunk box to enter search commands
- Distinguish between Splunk – supplied data and event data
- Use search results to refine your search
- Use the timerange selector and time histogram to spot trends and narrow search results
- Identify fields
- Define event types
- Use Splunk search syntax

Module Three – Reports and Alerts

- Identify the benefits of using reports
- Turn a search into a report
- Identify extracted fields
- Use report shortcuts
- Create Alerts
- List the notification methods for Alerts

Module Four – Advanced Search Syntax

- Define data generator commands and data processing commands
- Describe the search pipeline
- List several data processing commands

To register please email training@satisnet.co.uk or phone 01582 434320.